JOURNÉES D'ÉTUDES

UNIVERSITÉ de Picardie Jules Verne

BETWEEN ECONOMICS AND POLITICS : EUROPEAN PERIPHERIES IN CRISES

5 • 6 SEPTEMBRE

UNIVERSITÉ DE PICARDIE JULES VERNE
PÔLE UNIVERSITAIRE CATHÉDRALE
SALLE 313

ORGANISÉES PAR LE CRIISEA (UR 3908) :
LÉO MALHERBE (MCF-UPJV)

Tuesday, September 5th, 2023

1:00 - 1:30 PM

Welcome of the participants

1:30 - 2:00 PM

Introduction of the conference

2:00 - 4:00 PM

Theoretical approaches to the link between economic and political crises

Bruno Amable, Université de Genève
« Multidimensional social conflict and institutional change »

Eva Önnudóttir, University of Iceland
« Under what circumstances can political crisis be triggered by economic crisis? »

Chair: Matthieu Montalban, Université de Bordeaux

4:00 - 4:30 PM

Coffee break

4:30 - 6:30 PM

Center and periphery in the European context

Costas Lapavitsas, SOAS
« Hegemony in Europe: TARGET2 allows the EMU to tick over »

Giuseppe Celi, University of Foggia
« Trade networks and value chains:
the evolving position of EU peripheries in two decades »

Chair: Julien Vercueil, INALCO

Wednesday, September 6th, 2023

9:30 - 10 AM

Welcome of the participants

10AM - 12 NOON

European integration and peripheralization trajectories

Ana Podvršič, University of Graz
« What about the Euro? Rethinking the Slovenian Exception »

João Rodrigues, University of Coimbra
« The not so strange non-death of embedded neoliberalism in Portugal »

Antti Ronkainen, University of Helsinki
« The House always win »

Chair: Adriano do Vale, IPAG Poitiers

2:00 - 4:00 PM

Political restructuring in the wake of economic crises

José Reis, University of Coimbra
« When everything changes: economic and political restructuring in Portugal after financialization and austerity

Léo Malherbe, Université de Picardie & Lionel Cordier, Université Paris 8
« Economic crises and political restructuring in Iceland »

Costas Lapavitsas, SOAS
«Political developments in Greece since the crisis»

Chair: Léo Charles, Université Rennes 2

4:00 - 4:30 PM

Coffee break

4:30 - 6:30 PM

Current crises and authoritarianism

Peter Rutland, Wesleyan University
« Economic nationalism in Russia »

Romaric Godin, Mediapart
« La guerre sociale en France »

Chair: Lionel Cordier, Université Paris 8